(b) Merchant will (i) be responsible for all use of the Upflow Product (or any Free Service or Beta Product) under its account (whether or not authorized) by its Users, (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to prevent unauthorized access to or use of the Upflow Product (or any Free Service or Beta Product) and notify Upflow promptly of any such unauthorized access or use, (iii) use the Upflow Product (or any Free Service or Beta Product) in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Order Form, the Upflow Product Documentation and applicable laws and regulations, and (iv) be responsible for obtaining and maintaining any equipment, software and ancillary services needed to connect to, access or otherwise use the Upflow Product (or any Free Service or Beta Product), including as set forth in the Upflow Product Documentation. 3.3 Affiliates. Any Affiliate of Merchant will have the right to enter into an Order Form executed by such Affiliate and Upflow and this Agreement will apply to each such Order Form as if such Affiliate were a

5.4 Taxes. All amounts payable hereunder are exclusive of any sales, use, value-added, and other taxes or duties, however designated (collectively "Taxes"). Merchant will be solely responsible for payment of all Taxes associated with the subscription or purchase of the Upflow Product. If Upflow has any legal obligation to pay or withhold any of Merchant's taxes, Upflow will invoice Merchant and Merchant will pay

Upflow such amounts, unless Merchant provides Upflow a valid tax exemption certificate authorized by the appropriate taxing authority. Merchant will not withhold any taxes from any amounts due to Upflow.

6.4 Feedback. Merchant (and its Users) may from time to time provide Upflow suggestions or comments for enhancements or improvements, new features or functionality or other feedback ("Feedback") with respect to the Upflow Product (or any Free Service or Beta Product). Each party agrees that it will use the Confidential Information of the other party solely in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement and it will not disclose, or permit to be disclosed, the same directly or indirectly, to any third party without the other party's prior written consent, except as otherwise permitted hereunder. However, either party may disclose Confidential Information (a) to its employees, officers, directors, attorneys, auditors, financial advisors, contractors, vendors and other representatives who are legally bound to keep such information confidential; and (b) as required by law, in which case the receiving party will provide the disclosing party with prior written notification thereof, will provide the disclosing party with the opportunity to contest such disclosure, and will use its reasonable efforts to minimize such disclosure to the extent permitted by applicable law. Neither party will disclose the terms of this Agreement to any third party, except that either party may confidentially disclose such terms to actual or potential lenders, investors, or acquirers. Each party agrees to exercise reasonable due care in protecting the Confidential Information from unauthorized use and disclosure. In the event of an actual breach of the provisions of this Section, the non-breaching party will be entitled to seek immediate injunctive and other equitable relief, without waiving any other rights or remedies available to it. For material breach of the foregoing express warranties, Merchant's sole and exclusive remedy shall be its right to terminate the applicable Order Form in accordance with Section 10.2 and recover a pro-rata portion of the pre-paid fees paid to Upflow (representing exclusively the period after such termination) for such deficient Upflow Product.

7.2 Third Party Services and Integrations. Upflow may use third party service providers for the implementation of the Upflow Products, including integration partners and payment partners ("Third Party Providers"). In the event of unavailability of the Upflow Product due to these Third Party Providers, Upflow will use its commercial best efforts to maintain the Upflow Product pursuant to this Agreement, provided under no circumstances will Upflow be considered liable for any failure to provide the Upflow Product due to failings by any Third Party Providers. Upflow is not responsible for any act or omission of any Third Party Providers it integrates with or uses.

To the extent the parties have signed an Order Form, the initial term of each Order Form will begin as provided pursuant to the terms of the Order Form, provided that the terms of this Agreement shall apply as of the Effective Date of such Order Form and the Order Form will continue for the subscription term set forth therein. Except as set forth in such Order Form, the term of such Order Form will automatically renew for successive renewal terms equal to the length of the initial term of such Order Form, unless either party provides the other party with written notice by registered letter (unless otherwise agreed by Upflow) of non-renewal at least thirty (30) days prior to the end of the then-current term. Merchant agrees that Upflow is permitted to increase its Fees by up to 8% annually for Order Form auto-renewals on the same terms and conditions as the Order Form that is auto-renewing.

11.3 Assignment; Delegation. Neither party hereto may assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement, in whole or in part, without the other party’s prior written consent, except that either party may assign this Agreement without consent in connection with any sale of the business, merger or change of control transaction, provided that the other party provides written notice of such event after the fact. Any attempted assignment, delegation, or transfer by either party in violation hereof will be null and void. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement will be binding on the parties and their successors and assigns.

11.4 Amendment; Waiver. No amendment or modification to this Agreement, nor any waiver of any rights hereunder, will be effective unless assented to in writing by both parties. Any such waiver will be only to the specific provision and under the specific circumstances for which it was given, and will not apply with respect to any repeated or continued violation of the same provision or any other provision. Failure or delay by either party to enforce any provision of this Agreement will not be deemed a waiver of future enforcement of that or any other provision.

11.5 Relationship. Nothing contained herein will in any way constitute any association, partnership, agency, employment, or joint venture between the parties hereto, or be construed to evidence the intention of the parties to establish any such relationship. Neither party will have the authority to obligate or bind the other in any manner, and nothing herein contained will give rise or is intended to give rise to any rights of any kind to any third parties.

No oral or written information or advice given by Upflow, its agents, or employees will create a warranty or in any way increase the scope of the warranties in this Agreement (or the Order Form).

11.8 Force Majeure. Neither party will be deemed in breach hereunder for any cessation, interruption, or delay in the performance of its obligations due to causes beyond its reasonable control (“Force Majeure Event”), including earthquake, flood, or other natural disasters, act of God, labor controversy, civil disturbance, terrorism, war (whether or not officially declared), cyber-attacks (e.g., denial of service attacks), mass pandemic, or the inability to obtain sufficient supplies, transportation, or other essential commodity or service required in the conduct of its business, or any change in or the adoption of any law, regulation, judgment or decree.
